The Red Sea & Middle East

Home to some of the world's warmest and saltiest seawater, the Red Sea is a remarkable body of water, where technicolour coral reef displays draw divers from around the world to view its thriving biodiversity. Of course, its part to play in biblical history excites and intrigues intrepid explorers, who flock to witness its powerful, divine properties.

On Asia's west, an all-star cast lines the shores of the Persian Gulf, as the countries of the Arabian Peninsula commit to preserving their heritage while evolving into world-class destinations.

Highlights:

Each cruise has been carefully designed to give you the freedom to explore at your own pace.

- Hurghada: Stretching almost 25 miles along the Red Sea coast, Hurghada is a wonderful mix of old and new. Its stunning coral reefs have earned it the recognition as one of the best scuba diving spots in the world. Visit Hurghada's Old Town of El Dahar for its winding narrow streets and traditional bazaars, and Sakalla, for its more modern, bustling town centre.
- Aqaba: Jordan's only coastal city is the gateway to the Wadi Rum desert. Gaze in awe as the sun sets over the red sand dunes for an ethereal experience and taste tea amongst friendly locals at Palm Beach. Visit Mamluk Castle, the site of one of the First World War's most famous battles, and explore the Sherif al-Hussein bin Ali Mosque, an architectural vision and place of worship.
- Dubai: This once humble fishing village is now a thriving metropolis, home to over 200 nationalities and some of the most spectacular modern architecture in the world. Old and new collide, offering something for everyone. From sprawling spice markets, historic neighbourhoods and abra rides across the creek, to theme parks, zip lining, art galleries and shopping malls, there's nothing you can't do here.
- Abu Dhabi: There's more to this multifaceted city than meets the eye, a highly regarded business hub that offers so much more to its diverse portfolio of visitors. Where high-end fashion boutiques, tree-lined boulevards and delicious eateries make for wonderful days out, designated green spaces and desert spas connect you to nature, and one of the world's largest mosques showcases a proud cultural heritage.

Ancient Wonders of the Red Sea & Mythical Greece

Day 1 Jeddah, Saudi Arabia

Your luxurious superyacht awaits you in the city of Jeddah, where the ancient and modern meet. A buzzing multicultural hub, it maintains its integral historical heart in its ancient district, Al Balad.

Day 2 At Sea

Day 3 Al Wajh (AlUla)

One of the biggest coastal cities along the Red Sea, Al Wajh lies in its composure and ancient roots. It is also the jumping off point for visiting AlUla, home to Saudi Arabia's first UNESCO World Heritage-listed site. There are few places in the world that allow you to appreciate the silence of the vast desert while visiting such well-preserved tombs.

- Discover AlUla

Day 4 Dubai (Neom)

A small city on the northern Red Sea coast, Dubai is described as "The Pearl of the Red Sea" by the locals.

Day 5 Aqaba, Jordan

As the country's only port, Aqaba has long been a hugely important part of Jordanian life. Its Old Town features the 14th century Mamluk Fort, while Aqaba Archaeological Museum offers a fascinating insight into the town's past.

- Guided tour of Petra with lunch included

Day 6 Sharm El-Sheikh, Egypt

At the base of Egypt's Sinai Peninsula is the luxurious resort of Sharm el-Sheikh. Centuries-old mosques and bazaars nestle neatly next to elegant hotel resorts, while the region is also renowned for its world-class diving sites.

- Naama Bay and glass bottom boat trip
- Snorkelling at Ras Mohammad National Park

Day 7 Ain Sokhna, Egypt – Transit Suez Canal

Situated on the shore of the Red Sea's Gulf of Suez, Ain Sokhna is the nearest beach resort to the Egyptian capital Cairo and the jumping off point to visit the Great Pyramids.

- The Great Pyramids of Giza and Felucca cruise on the Nile

Day 8 Transit Suez Canal

Day 9 At Sea

Day 10 Agios Nikolaos, Greece

The largest town in Eastern Crete, Agios Nikolaos is known for having "three faces to the sea". This vibrant town combines the charisma of a small fishing village and the appeal of a resort town.

- Walking tour of Agios Nikolaos

Day 11 Santorini

Rising from the destruction of a 16th century volcanic eruption, Santorini is highly renowned for its beauty, carved by its after-effects. Iconic whitewashed buildings grip to the beautiful, rugged cliffs overlooking where the Aegean Sea meets with white sandy beaches.

- Akrotiri & the Prehistoric Museum of Thera
- Greek cooking class
- Oia and winery visit

Day 12 Athens (Piraeus)

Your spectacular yacht cruise comes to an end in Athens where you'll disembark for your transfer to the airport, taking unforgettable memories with you.
